

Dear FCC, Soon you will decide if New Jersey can keep the nation's strongest Do Not Call Law. Acting Governor Richard J. Codey, is urging the federal government not to weaken one of New Jersey's most successful consumer protection laws -- the Do Not Call Program. I agree with Governor Codey.

Over 2.8 million New Jerseyans have already signed up for the Do Not Call Program (representing approximately two out of every three residential phone lines in the state). The program has been a resounding success; many residents report almost a 100 percent drop in unwanted sales calls. Most likely due to its success, the law is under a coordinated attack from telemarketers who want the ability to call people despite the fact they have already signed up to stop telemarketing sales calls.

Please do not weaken the New Jersey Do Not Call Law. It is wonderful not being harrassed by the continuous telemarket telephone calls on both my home and celluar phone. ALLOW NEW JERSEY TO KEEP THE DO NOT CALL PROGRAM AS IT IS STANDS TODAY.

Sincerely,
ROBERT WEISS
